

1 Delegate Gleason.

2 DELEGATE GLEASON: What I am anxious to do is
3 enter into a little colloquy with the chairman of the 4 committee to try to ascertain and recall to his mind
5 precisely what our discussions were before the committee
6 on the subject, so I have no objection at this time.

7 THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Gallagher, the Chair
8 suggests you have the amendment prepared at the dinner
9 recess, and we will take it up immediately following the 10 dinner recess.

11 Are there any other amendments?

12 We will suspend, then, further consideration of 13 this section.

14 The Chair has several announcements to make.

15 Will the pages please distribute at this time
16 the four papers held by the rubber band marked Journal of 17 Proceedings?

18 The rules of this Convention indicate that
19 the Journal should be approved by the Convention. The 20 Journal will be approximately 1,000 pages, typewritten pages,
21 in length.
